This year's cover photo was taken at Vanvalley Farm in Duncan by Amanda Poelman. Vanvalley is a third-generation family farm that has been operational since 1960. The vanBovens milk 50 cows and raise all their own forages to feed the herd.

Fulfilling the long-time dream of bottling and selling their own milk, the vanBoven family will open the Cowichan Milk Company very soon. The Cowichan Milk Company will "sell farm fresh milk to the community from happy, healthy cows who live right here in the Cowichan Valley." Milk will be sold in "Local" branded glass bottles from the farm gate store and via a home delivery service.

Visit cowichanmilk.ca for more information as the vanBoven family gets closer to opening day!
